

RUFINO J. HERNÁNDEZ MINGUILLÓN

Full Professor at the ETSA UPV/EHU
Partner-Director of “AH asociados, arquitectura SL”

Architect and Ph.D. Architect from the University of Navarra and Master in building technology (1991). Full Professor at the School of Architecture in San Sebastián – the University of País Vasco since 1997 and accredited as Chair Professor in 2015. He has been deputy director of the Construction Department of the ETSASS (1997-2003) and technical director and coordinator of the Postgraduate Program in Sustainable Construction. Member of Training Program of the Higher Council of Colleges of Architects of Spain (CSCAE).

Founder and Director of "AH asociados" architecture office, his work has been a finalist in the COAVN, VI BEAU, IV Exhibition of Spanish Architects, Veteco, Murcia Prize, FAD, Construmat and Saloni Awards; and granted the SEDIGAS 2002, PAD 2003, APCE 2005, COAVN 2007 and NaN 2009 and 2011 Awards. He has also a monograph of his recent work, exhibited at the Venice Biennial (2008 and 2012) and in international publications such as El Croquis, A+T, AV, A+W, C3 and Detail; or in the guides "Architecture of Spain 1929/1996", "Spanish Architecture 1920/2000", "GAN SXX" and "Phaidon World Atlas of Architecture".

(Photo: ah)